

[MASTER PLAN OF THE FACULTY OF NURSING]

The Master Plan Committee of the Faculty of Nursing has agreed to provisionally approve the initial elements of the Plan (Validity, Mission, Vision and Values). The Committee also determines to disseminate these proposals so that the university community of the Faculty can make suggestions and changes.

VALIDITY OF THE MASTER PLAN

The Master Plan would begin in the 2018-2019 academic year and it would end in the 2022-2023 academic year.

MISSION OF THE FACULTY OF NURSING

(What we are at present)

The Faculty of Nursing is a center of Higher Education committed to the socio-sanitary reality and the promotion of health education in its environment, strategically located in the “Bahía de Algeciras” Campus. It is dedicated to the integral formation of the future professionals of the nursing, as well as, to the continuous formation throughout the life of the professionals, transmitting to them the motivation and the importance of the critical thought and the excellence by means of the innovation and investigation in the care.

VISIÓN OF THE FACULTY OF NURSING

(What we want to be in the year 2023)

Our Faculty wants to be recognized as a university center of reference in undergraduate & postgraduate training and in research & innovation in Health Sciences, in order to respond to the health needs of the Society. To achieve this, we will emphasize the close and personalized treatment of the student, the educational innovation, the teaching excellence and the practical-clinical training in a respectful and responsible manner with multiculturalism and diversity.

VALUES OF THE FACULTY OF NURSING

The Faculty of Nursing embraces the values of the University of Cádiz and highlights as its own the commitment to innovation & research in health care, the multidisciplinary teamwork, the motivation, the closeness and the empathy.
