

[MASTER PLAN OF THE FACULTY OF LABOUR SCIENCES]

The Master Plan Committee of the Faculty of Labour Sciences has agreed to approve the initial elements of the Plan (Validity, Mission, Vision and Values).

VALIDITY OF THE MASTER PLAN

The Master Plan would begin in the 2017-2018 academic year and it would end in the 2021-2022 academic year.

MISSION OF THE FACULTY OF LABOUR SCIENCES

(What we are at present)

The Faculty of Labour Sciences is a multidisciplinary public university establishment dedicated to training and researching in the areas of Labour Relations, Human Resources, Social Work and Mediation, with the purpose of transmit to our students the necessary knowledge for the development of diverse professional activities, as well as the creation and transfer of knowledge in the field of our competence.

VISIÓN OF THE FACULTY OF LABOUR SCIENCES

(What we want to be in the year 2022)

The Faculty of Labour Sciences aspires to be a consolidated and recognized establishment in its academic and social environment for its contribution to research and integral training of its students in the socio-labour field.

It aims to be an establishment with international projection that promotes entrepreneurship and the labour insertion of its graduates.

VALUES OF THE FACULTY OF LABOUR SCIENCES

The Faculty of Labour Sciences of the University of Cádiz assumes the values of the University of Cádiz, emphasizing expressly the following: effort, responsibility, respect, integrity, solidarity, honesty, plurality and professionalism.

In addition, it adds as own values: social commitment, closeness and support to the students, tolerance, diversity and social cohesion.

In order to know the diagnosis of the faculty, the critical success factors, the challenges and the actions to reach these challenges, you can refer to the Spanish version: <https://destrategico.uca.es/wp-content/uploads/2017/10/Plan-Director-Fac.-CC.-Trabajo.pdf?u>