

[MASTER PLAN OF THE FACULTY OF LAW]

The Master Plan Committee of the Faculty of Law has agreed to approve the initial elements of the Plan (Validity, Mission, Vision and Values).

VALIDITY OF THE MASTER PLAN

The Master Plan would begin in the 2017-2018 academic year and it would end in the 2021-2022 academic year.

MISSION OF THE FACULTY OF LAW

(What we are at present)

The Faculty of Law is an establishment of the University of Cádiz that conducts quality teaching and research in the field of legal and criminological sciences. In it, specialized training is given to its various interest groups, and the results of their legal research is transferred and disclosed to society.

VISIÓN OF THE FACULTY OF LAW

(What we want to be in the year 2022)

The Faculty of Law aspires to be an internationally recognized establishment for its quality and prestige in legal and criminological research and teaching. It wants to differentiate itself by improving its results in research and teaching, by responding to expectations of their graduates and for having their own, international, diversified training offer suitable for the needs of society.

VALUES OF THE FACULTY OF LAW

The Faculty of Law, embraces the values of the University of Cádiz, and assumes as own: Commitment, generosity, closeness, involvement, companionship, capacity for debate and consensus and, in general, the human quality of their personal.

In order to know the diagnosis of the faculty, the critical success factors, the challenges and the actions to reach these challenges, you can refer to the Spanish version: <https://destrategico.uca.es/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/Plan-Director-Fac.-de-Derecho.pdf?u>